

Jane Gol Joins NYC Planning Commission

Jane Gol joined the New York City Planning Commission in December 2001. Jane Gol received her BS from Cornell University and studied for a Masters' degree at New York University. Ms. Gol was the owner-manager of sportswear stores in Soho and Greenwich Village, and utilized her retail experience with Continental Equities, owners of shopping centers spanning from Ohio to Florida. Continental also owned and managed medical facilities and residential properties.

Ms. Gol has been actively involved in the renovation and expansion of existing properties, and has successfully directed and managed the marketing and leasing of their various commercial properties. In addition to her work with the Planning Commission, Ms. Gol works with Continental Ventures on the development of multi-family housing, and retail properties.
